

Violence against women crosses all socio-economic levels, age groups, races, religions and countries. According to the present data, the probability that in one's professional and personal life there will be a victim of domestic violence is very high. The central objective of the course is to sustainably improve the competences of police officers and law enforcement staff in the area of violence against women with the main purpose of supporting women survivors of violence.

BUPNET

This course is on the Grundtvig 3 database. DE-2009-850-002
For more information about registration and application for funding contact us on +39 348 123 6076 or email us on mmhtraining@gmail.com

Valletta, Malta
5th - 9th May 2009

Acting on the Background for a higher Climbing Up of Women Survivors of Violence

BACK GROUND